

Apprenticeship for Child Development Specialist

State Executive Council Policies and Procedures

Responsibilities

The state Executive Council is responsible for policy making, planning and developing funding alternatives in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Labor/Office of Apprenticeship (DOL/OA) guidelines. The council will serve as a mediator for issues and concerns not resolved by the local councils and/or the ACDS Statewide Coordinator. The Executive Council will meet a minimum of once a quarter.

The ACDS Statewide Coordinator will serve as the chair of the council. The organizing council will set the membership criteria for ensuing years, with the understanding that all council members must be involved in some manner with ACDS. It will also determine the officers of the council and their elected terms. The term limits for representatives will be two years. Terms shall expire at the spring meeting. Members may choose to serve multiple terms.

A state Executive Advisory Committee will consist of officers of the State Executive Council and the director of the DOL/OA. The Executive Advisory Committee will make emergency decisions in the interim between meetings. The Executive Advisory Committee will serve as the screening committee to review applications for the Instructor Academy upon request of the Statewide Coordinator.

If state Executive Council members or their alternates fail to attend three of the four regularly scheduled meetings each year, they may be removed from the council and replaced with an alternative representative. They may choose to remain involved with the council as alternate representatives for their regions. In this instance, a new representative from the local council will be chosen to represent the region on the Executive Council.
